Cancer Services Announces Champion of Hope Award Recipient

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — Cancer Services is pleased to announce the selection of Jim and Adda Jane Wiegman as the recipients of this year's Champions of Hope Award, presented at the 7th Annual Tribute Dinner on Thursday, October 13.

Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana Champions of Hope are individuals who uphold the mission of the organization by ensuring help and support is available to others. The recipients of this award are recognized through their unparalleled devotion to the organization as a volunteer, advocate, friend and companion, leading by example and exhibiting unwavering compassion. They embody the mission of Cancer Services through a lifelong commitment in enhancing the quality of life of those affected by cancer in Northeast Indiana.

Jim and Adda Jane have made significant contributions to our community as volunteers and co-founders of the US TOO support group for men with prostate cancer and their partners. Since its debut in 1992, US TOO has held more than 200 monthly meetings providing men and their partners a safe place to talk about their health and well-being. Jim and Adda Jane have dedicated much of their time to US TOO, and in return they have become a source of comfort and information for hundreds of men and women throughout our community.

Jim and Adda Jane served many years as volunteers with the Scotts/Kroger Cancer Day, bagging groceries and helping at the golf outing. They have given financial support to Cancer Services and been a foundation for inspiration to staff and volunteers alike, always offering their help. These two Champions of Hope have had positive impacts on the quality of life of so many friends and neighbors through their very own message of hope.

About Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana
